Aguinaldo's Oration to His Followers at Tarlac.

Calls Attention to the Anti-Expansion Sentiment in the United

A copy of the Independenencia has eached Manila containing the speech which Aguinaldo made during the recent celebration at Tarlac of the annual anniversary of the proclamation of Filipino independence. In substance, it

"Filipino, beloved daughter of the ardent sun of the tropics, commended by providence to the care of noble Spain, be not ungrateful to her salute who warmed you with the breath of her own culture and civilization. It is true she sought to crush the inspiration for Independence, as a loving mother opposes separation forever from the daughter of her bosom. This but proves the excess of love and affection Spain feels for the

Delicate flower of the East, scarcely eight months weared from the breast of thy mother, thou hast dared to brave a great and powerful nation, such as is the United States, after barely organiz-ing and disciplining thy little army. Yet, we reply, we will be slaves to none, nor allow ourselves to be deceived by soft words. Let us continue to defend our fatherland until independence is assured, for this is justice. We shall see at last that the great American nation will acknowledge the right, which is on
